"There's something very special about DofE Award holders - their capacity to help others. It's an amazing attribute that I hope you carry forward to the rest of your lives. Whilst the DofE is great to have on your CV to help you get a job, I think the most important thing is how much you've grown as people. The hard work and dedication that you've put in counts for so much and sets you up for a very successful future."

Jonathan Ross

"I've been an admirer of the DofE for many years. Throughout this time I've met lots of people who've done it and they're the type of people you'd like to know and employ - employers are always keen to meet people like you. I know the experience you've had will be an enormous benefit; it's an incredible achievement, it's exciting, impressive and fills me with a lot of hope for the future. You're the best of your generation!"

"I am a big fan of the DofE. As Award holders you are our hope for the future - you've shown that you're committed, capable and confident and potential employers will know instantly what you're made of. Confidence is the magic ingredient in life; it will open doors and allow your talent to blossom. Go on and make the best of your life, for yourself, your family and our society."

Vivienne Westwood

"The DofE has given young people a sense of achievement and a motivation to make the world a better place. If you have that as your aim in life you won't go wrong, you'll do your best. As Award holders you owe it to yourself and the world to fulfil your potential, follow your deep curiosity. Believe in yourself and follow what interests you. The acorn is to become the oak."

Endorsements

These are the companies that currently endorse the DofE because they believe it makes young people more employable and better prepares them for work.

They all say they look favourably on young recruits with DofE awards.

"As Award holders you have shown commitment, belief, dedication and teamwork which will be a springboard for which ever career in life you chose. I'm always so inspired by young people who have achieved so much."

Joanna Lumley

"The Duke of Edinburgh's Award is a way of recognising the extraordinary achievement of young people aged 14-25, which is just the age when I was being useless, they are doing something fantastic and challenging themselves in every possible way."

Achievement pack

A lovely, personalised keepsake (a bit like a photo book) to add all your favourite pictures and memories.

What is the Achievement Pack?

The Achievement Pack is a personalised record of achievement that a young person can create when they've completed their Duke of Edinburgh's Award using eDofE. We have used the valued parts of the old Record Book to create a relevant and inspirational record of a young person's adventure with the DofE.

This is an additional extra. The more evidence you add to eDofE the better it will be.

"As you have gone through the DofE, you have been growing with it and, as Award holder, you've shown you can hack it. Bear in mind that if you commit yourselves, you can all perform at an even higher level and you should aim to do so. Even more is expected of you and you should expect it from yourselves – go for it!"

Amanda Holden

"A DofE Award is recognisable worldwide and is testament to the commitment you've put in over the last few years. Something that I love about the DofE is that there are no barriers, it is open to everyone and I'd have loved to have been able to do mine when I was younger."
