

DISCIPLINARY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Mission Statement

WeST holds a deep seated belief in education and lifelong learning. Effective collaboration, mutual support and professional challenge will underpin our quest to ensure that all of the children and adults we serve are given every opportunity to fulfil their potential and succeed in life.

Westcountry Schools' Trust adopted this policy on 21 March 2019

Westcountry Schools' Trust will review this policy biannually

1 POLICY HISTORY 28

1. Delegation of Authority

Purpose

The Trust is committed to ensuring a consistent, fair, and equitable approach in all staffing matters, and will not discriminate either directly or indirectly on the grounds of an employee's gender, age, disability, gender re-assignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy, maternity status, race (including colour, nationality and ethnic or national origins), religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

In order to achieve this aim, there needs to be a clear delegation of authority throughout the structure of the Trust.

Responsibility for Taking Action – First Stage

For allegations against Secondary School teaching and non-teaching Staff – it will be the Principal who will be responsible for initiating the first stage of a staffing matter such as disciplinary.

For allegations against Primary School teaching and non-teaching Staff – it will be the Headteacher who will be responsible for initiating the first stage of a staffing matter such as disciplinary. The Executive Primary Principal to be kept informed.

For allegations against TLI Staff – it will be the Director who will be responsible for initiating the first stage of a staffing matter such as disciplinary.

For allegations against Central Services Team – this group covers all staff that work in a non-teaching function directly for the purpose of the overall Trust's operations. The Trust's CEO will be responsible for initiating the first stage in any staffing matter involving the Central Services Team.

For allegations against Secondary Principals– the CEO will be responsible for initiating the first stage of a staffing matter such as disciplinary.

For allegations against Primary Headteacher – the EPP will be responsible for initiating the first stage of a staffing matter such as disciplinary.

For allegations against The Director TLI – the CEO will be responsible for initiating the first stage of a staffing matter such as disciplinary.

For allegations against Executive Primary Principal – the CEO will be responsible for initiating the first stage in any staff matter such as disciplinary.

For allegations against the CEO – the Trust Board will be responsible for initiating the first stage in any staff matter such as disciplinary.

For the purpose of this Policy the term "Responsible Officer" will refer to Headteacher/Principal, CEO or Executive Primary Principal as detailed above.

Where allegations are made against a governor or a trustee:

Westcountry Schools Trust (WeST)

For allegations against a Local Governor – the Chair of Governors will be responsible for reviewing the governor conduct in line with the Code of Conduct for Governors and Trustees.

For allegations against a Trustee – the Chair of Trust will be responsible for reviewing the Trustee conduct in line with the Code of Conduct for Governors and Trustees..

For allegations against a Local Chair of Governors – the Chair of Trust will be responsible for reviewing the Trustee conduct in line with the Code of Conduct for Governors and Trustees..

For allegations against the Chair of Trust – the Members will be responsible for reviewing the conduct of the Chair of Trust in line with the Code of Conduct for Governors and Trustees.

Responsibility for the Appeal Stage

All employees have the right to appeal against a decision made in a range of staffing matters. To ensure transparency and a fair process is maintained, the appeal will be heard by a separate panel to the original hearing. Ideally, the Appeal Committee will consist of 3 trustees, however, where this is not possible at least two trustees must be present, and the other member will be a school governor from the MAT. Members of the Appeal Committee must not have been involved in the original hearing or investigation, or be in any way employed by the Trust.

POLICY AND PRINCIPLES

2. Purpose

This policy sets out the disciplinary procedure relating to employees.

3. Application and Exclusions

This policy is based on good practice to ensure a consistent and effective approach. The application of this policy will be fair, equitable, and objective and will not discriminate either directly or indirectly on the grounds of an employee's gender, age, disability, gender re-assignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy, maternity status, race (including colour, nationality and ethnic or national origins), religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

This policy applies to all employees within the Trust, whether permanent or on a temporary/fixed term contract. It does not apply to agency workers, contractors or volunteers.

The intention is that this policy does not erode contractual terms protected under TUPE.

4. Responsibility for Taking Action

Action to suspend an employee as part of this policy can only be taken by the Responsible Officer (see sections 1 – Delegation of Authority & 20 – Suspension). Action to remove an employee from the workplace pending the decision to suspend can be undertaken by a senior manager having sought advice from the HR Director or Trust Member.

Disciplinary hearings must be conducted and chaired by those that have delegated authority to dismiss. In Westcountry Schools Trust, this is likely to be the Responsible Officer in accordance with their delegated responsibilities (see table 1) (see section 22 – Disciplinary Hearing).

The HR Department will make the necessary arrangements and will be responsible for arranging the hearing, writing to the employee and arranging for a suitable person to attend the hearing to take notes.

5. Time Limits

The time limits included in this policy may be varied by mutual agreement. The policy makes reference to a number of 'days' within which certain actions/events are to occur. A 'day' is defined as any Monday to Friday excluding public holidays as defined by ACAS.

If a concern is raised during a period of School closure, the timeframes indicated in the policy will commence from the first day of the School being open. Where a concern is raised immediately prior to a period of School closure, the availability of any person(s) who may need to be interviewed as part of any investigation will be taken into consideration by both parties when mutually agreeing any required extension to the timeframes.

6. Standards Expected of Employees

The standards expected of employees include but are not limited to:

- maintaining standards of behaviour in keeping with the interests and standing of Westcountry Schools Trust. This includes behaviour outside of working hours and in any form that is visible to the public, including social networking or any other electronic medium;
- devoting full attention while at work to the duties of their position and in doing so acting with responsibility, good judgement and in good faith;
- carrying out any reasonable instructions given by those with authority to do so;
- not divulging to any unauthorised person or making personal use of confidential information connected with the Trust either intentionally or through negligent behaviour;
- observing the rules, regulations and instructions adopted by the Trust;
- following appropriate safeguarding procedures;
- participating fully in any investigation into alleged incidents and/or allegations including attending meetings as directed;
- using electronic communications appropriately;
- ensuring that information brought to light as a result of any investigation is treated with discretion;
- carrying out their role consistently with any standards set by their appropriate professional body;
- taking steps to address any unacceptable behaviour; and
- treating colleagues and third parties with dignity and respect.

In addition to the above, the expectations of those employed in management roles are to:

- ensure the standards expected from employees are role-modelled, monitored and managed effectively
- effectively manage all applicable statutory and non-statutory obligations
- appropriately manage all alleged incidents and/or allegations.

6.1 Behaviour Outside Work

Unacceptable behaviour and/or criminal offences that have occurred outside of work may be dealt with under this policy if the employee's behaviour or activities:

- may make them unsuitable for the job they are employed to do, e.g. failure to protect their own children

- has the potential to cause damage to the reputation of Westcountry Schools Trust. This includes written and verbal communications and covers all types of media including newspapers, internet, and social media
- identifies them as a perpetrator of domestic violence
- identifies them as behaving in a way that leads to a breakdown in working relationships
- are inconsistent with the professional standards of public behaviour expected of the role e.g. lewd behaviour, being intoxicated in public, association with illegal drugs
- identifies them as having engaged in inappropriate contact with a child, student or vulnerable adult.

The above list is not exhaustive. The Trust may view other behaviour as suitable for being considered under this policy.

7. Informal Action

For minor breaches and incidents, for example occasional time keeping issues, consideration should always be given to using informal action such as professional guidance and/or additional training as this may be sufficient to address the concerns. Any such action should be confirmed in writing and monitored to ensure the required improvements are made and sustained. This does not form part of the formal disciplinary procedure.

Alternatively, although unlikely, it may be appropriate for the matter to be dealt with by mediation, depending on the nature of the matter. This involves the appointment of third-party mediators, who will facilitate discussion of the issues raised. Mediation will be used only where all parties involved agree to engage in the process and the Trust considers it to be beneficial in order to resolve the situation.

8. Appointment of Investigator(s)

An appropriate person (or two people), may be asked by the Responsible Officer to carry out an investigation. The investigator(s) should not have had any previous involvement in the circumstances of the incident/allegation, no close relationship with any party involved nor any vested interest.

9. Being Accompanied

The Employment Relations Act 1999 determines that an employee has a statutory right to request to be accompanied at any disciplinary or grievance hearing. To invoke that right an employee must make a reasonable request to the employer to be accompanied by either:

- a paid official from a recognised trade union/professional association

- an official of a trade union/professional association whom the union has reasonably certified in writing as having experience of, or as having received training in acting as an employee's companion at disciplinary or grievance hearings
- an appropriate work colleague.

Friends/family members are not permitted unless they fall under the above criteria and it is agreed as appropriate. It would not normally be reasonable for an employee to be accompanied by a work colleague or trade union/professional association representative whose presence would prejudice the hearing and/or was from a remote geographical location if someone suitable and willing was available on site.

If an employee's chosen representative is not available on the day proposed for the hearing, the employee can propose an alternative date within the following five days of the original date proposed.

10. Non Attendance

If an employee fails to attend a meeting or hearing under this policy through circumstances beyond their control, such as certified illness, an alternative time and date may be offered. Alternatively they may submit a written statement or nominate a representative to attend on their behalf.

Where an employee is persistently unable or unwilling to attend the meeting/hearing without good cause, it will proceed in their absence and a decision based on the evidence available will be made.

A failure to not attend a pre-arranged meeting or hearing may also lead to action under this policy.

11. Allegations Involving Children, Students or Vulnerable Adults

All employees working at Westcountry Schools Trust must understand that the nature of their work and the responsibilities related to it, place them in a position of trust. Any abuse of this trust will be managed under this policy.

The Children Act 2004 places a duty on schools to safeguard and promote the wellbeing of children in their care. This includes the need to ensure that all adults who work with or on behalf of children are competent, confident and safe to do so.

If any allegation involves safeguarding concerns, especially in relation to an alleged abuse of trust, the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) will be contacted before any further action can be taken and/or before the matter is discussed with the employee (see Appendix 1).

If there is reason to believe that evidence of inappropriate material and/or communications may be found on the employee's work computer and/or mobile phone, an external organisation may be notified and asked to undertake an audit on the employee's school equipment. An employee's computer or phone will not be accessed until the audit company has been contacted.

The Trust recognises its obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998 to protect employees' right to a private life. However, it is an expectation of our Code of Conduct that where conduct prejudicial to the safety of a child is being investigated, staff are informed of and sign to acknowledge that their business email and network account may be interrogated.

All Senior Managers/Principals/Headteachers should be aware that a criminal act may have been committed, e.g. inappropriate communication with a student or vulnerable adult and therefore the evidence must be preserved.

Consideration should be given to restricting the employee's access to ICT accounts, and/or it may be appropriate for access to be blocked until appropriate action has been taken to secure data.

12. Allegations in the public interest (whistleblowing)

There may be occasions when the allegations are made by an employee about something that is in the public interest and could be constituted as a 'protected disclosure' under the Trust's Whistleblowing Policy. Such allegations may include matters where there may have been:

- an unlawful or a criminal offence;
- a breach of a legal obligation (but not a personal contractual breach unless such breach involves a matter of public interest);
- a miscarriage of justice;
- mistreatment or abuse of a student/member of staff or a member of the public for whom the Trust has a responsibility;
- in disregard of legislation governing health and safety at work;
- actions which have led to or could lead to damage to the environment; or
- deliberately covers up information tending to show any of the above.

In these circumstances it may be appropriate to invoke the Trust's Whistleblowing Policy prior to or at the same time as the Disciplinary Policy. Where it appears that allegations may constitute a protected disclosure, those allegations will be referred for consideration under the Whistleblowing Policy.

13. Allegations Involving Employees with a professional registration

If there are any allegations about the practice of an employee who is required to have a professional registration, a Professional Lead may be nominated and their advice sought. It may be appropriate for the Professional Lead to provide expert witness testimony in any subsequent investigation process and/or disciplinary hearing.

14. Criminal Offences/Police Involvement

A decision must be made whether to apply this policy as a result of any charge or conviction resulting from a criminal offence. This includes police cautions and/or warnings. This may apply in circumstances where the alleged offence may have an effect on employment or where this could bring Westcountry Schools Trust into disrepute. In most cases, it is important that the internal investigation under this policy is not delayed. However, where the investigation may hamper a police investigation or has the potential to prejudice any future court proceedings, it is essential to liaise with the police to determine the most appropriate course of action.

15. Allegations of Financial Irregularity

Where incidents of financial irregularity are suspected an audit may be undertaken either by the Trust or via the use of an external organisation. Where financial irregularity is suspected, the employee's computer or mobile phone will not be accessed until the audit has been undertaken. This should be done before any action is taken under this policy.

16. Allegations involving Information Security Incidents

Allegations involving a breach or potential breach of data security will be managed under this policy, with reference to the Trust's Data Protection policy.

PROCEDURE

17. Incident Occurs / Allegation Made

When an incident occurs or an allegation is made, the details should be provided to the Responsible Officer. If the allegation(s) are of a safeguarding nature, the Responsible Officer should follow section 12 of this policy. If the allegation(s) are not of a safeguarding nature, the Responsible Officer should ensure that:

- where it is appropriate and will not have an impact on any further investigations, that the employee is notified of the allegation(s) verbally and in writing as soon as possible

- a decision is made whether the employee can remain at work, should be temporarily transferred to suitable alternative duties, is asked to remain away from work or be suspended (see sections 19 and 20).
- An investigator(s) is appointed, if required, and an investigation commissioned.

18. Remain Away from Work / Sending Home

An employee may be instructed by a senior manager, in the absence of the Responsible Officer and having taken advice from the HR Director or a Trust member to remain away from the workplace or leave the workplace immediately and stay away on normal pay until further notice. This will only be done in circumstances when there appears to be an issue which may place the employee or others at risk or where there may be a detrimental impact if the employee remains in the workplace.

The manager will consider if it is necessary to ask for work equipment (keys, phones, premises access 'smartcards' etc.) to be returned or access to ICT systems etc. restricted. When sending home, the manager will ensure that the employee can get home safely.

The decision and reasons for sending home should be confirmed to the employee in writing as soon as possible.

Following a review of the information available, a decision about whether to formally suspend the employee should then be made by those with appropriate authority as soon as possible and confirmed to the employee in writing.

19. Suspension

Suspension is not a disciplinary penalty and should be regarded as a neutral act. Action to suspend an employee can only be taken by the Responsible Officer.

Most disciplinary procedures will not require suspension. An employee will usually be able to continue doing their normal role while the matter is investigated.

Suspension should usually only be considered if there is a serious allegation of misconduct and:

- working relationships have severely broken down
- the employee could tamper with evidence, influence witnesses and/or sway the investigation into the allegation
- there is a risk to other children, employees or property
- the employee is the subject of criminal proceedings which may affect whether they can do their job.

The reasons for suspension must be stated clearly to the employee and confirmed in writing as soon as possible and the suspension must be kept under review. Suspension can only be lifted by the Responsible Officer.

Alternative duties, should, wherever possible be considered. These may include:

- being moved to a different area of the workplace
- working from home
- changing their working hours
- being placed on restricted duties
- working under supervision
- being transferred to a different role within the organisation (the role should be of a similar status to their normal role, and with the same terms and conditions of employment).

20. Investigation

Any investigation carried out under this policy will be thorough, unbiased and reasonable in the circumstances.

The nature and extent of the investigation will depend on the seriousness of the matter and should be proportionate to the allegation that has been made.

Where it is necessary to interview witnesses during an investigation, the interviews and discussions undertaken should follow a standard format and any interview or witness statements produced should be signed and agreed by the witness.

If evidence of further instances or further allegations arise during the investigation process, these will be added to the initial investigation and will be considered at the same time as the original allegations.

The findings of any investigation, together with any relevant evidence, including witness statements etc., should be provided to the Responsible Officer in a report together with written recommendation as to the next steps.

The investigator(s) will recommend whether:

- no action is necessary
- the matter should be dealt with outside this policy
- the matter should be referred to a disciplinary hearing.

21.1 Interviewing Children/Students/Vulnerable Adults

If children are to be interviewed as part of an investigation, their parents/carers should be advised and consent obtained in advance. Interviews should not take place with children unless they are accompanied by a suitable person or parental consent has been given to them being interviewed unaccompanied. Vulnerable adults should be accompanied by a suitable person.

The employee's trade union/professional association representative may be present during any interview if this does not jeopardise the integrity of the investigation. This will preclude the child/vulnerable adult being interviewed more than once and negate the requirement for them to attend a disciplinary hearing. If the matter does proceed to a hearing, the employee will be provided with notes of the meeting as part of the investigation report.

21. Disciplinary Hearing

Where it is determined that an employee is required to attend a hearing, the HR Department where appropriate, will notify the employee in writing giving at least 5 days' notice, stating the details of the disciplinary hearing, the possible outcomes of the hearing, the employee's right to request to be accompanied and that the hearing may take place in the employee's absence if they fail to attend without providing a satisfactory explanation. A copy of the investigation report and a copy of this policy must be included with the letter.

At the hearing, the employee will be given the opportunity to respond to the allegation(s), question any witnesses and present their case to the Responsible Officer.

Following consideration of all the evidence, the Responsible Officer will adjourn the hearing to make a decision. A view will be reached regarding the validity or otherwise of the allegation(s) and a decision taken as to what action should be taken.

The Responsible Officer will act in good faith. In disciplinary cases the standard of proof required is the balance of probability, i.e. a judgment of whether it is more probable than not that misconduct (or gross misconduct) took place, or, that there is some other substantial reason that exists that justifies dismissal. Account will be taken of any mitigating circumstances given by the employee. The courses of action available are as follows:

Non-Formal Action

- take no action
- Offer professional guidance as to the required standard of behaviour and inform the employee of the consequences of not achieving the required standard. Professional Guidance is not a formal disciplinary sanction

Formal Action

- issue a verbal warning
- issue a formal written warning if there has been either a repeated minor breach of conduct, or a first but more serious breach of conduct.
- issue a final written warning if there has been an insufficient response to previous warnings and conduct is still unsatisfactory or in the case of a first but sufficiently serious breach of conduct.
- issue the employee with notice of dismissal if, following a final written warning, conduct remains unsatisfactory and the employee still fails to reach or maintain the prescribed standard; or in the case of a first but sufficiently serious breach of conduct or if the circumstances of the matter justify dismissal for some other substantial reason.
- dismiss the employee because a statutory bar results in the employment being unable to continue

Westcountry Schools Trust (WeST)

- dismiss the employee summarily without notice and without there having been any previous disciplinary warnings when there has been gross misconduct.

Formal Action (Some Other Substantial Reason)

There may be occasions, following a fair procedure, where a dismissal for some other substantial reason (SOSR) is considered. In these circumstances the Responsible Officer will ensure that they act reasonably in dismissing the employee taking into account all of the circumstances.

There is no set definition of what a SOSR reason is, however common examples can include (but are not limited to):

- A breakdown in trust and confidence
- Personality clashes
- Conflict(s) of interest / Protection from competition
- Reputational risk
- Where there are concerns relating to the safeguarding of children or vulnerable adults, but where the Trust does not have grounds for a misconduct dismissal.

22.1 Delivering the Outcome

The Responsible Officer will reconvene the hearing and confirm their decision verbally, unless valid reasons exist not to do so, and will write to the employee within five days to confirm their decision.

Where action results in the issue of a warning of any type, there should normally be a specified period that the warning remains current, e.g. 6 months for a verbal warning, 12 months for a written/final written warning. It should be made clear to the employee that further unsatisfactory conduct may result in further disciplinary action which could lead to dismissal.

After the specified period the warning will be considered spent for disciplinary purposes. However, if the warning relates to safeguarding children this sanction may be referred to in employment or other references that the Trust are required to provide - if the role involves responsibility or contact with children. This may be the case even where the warning is spent, as the Trust's safeguarding responsibilities would take precedence, although discretion will be applied to determine if this is appropriate.

Where a warning/final written warning or dismissal is the outcome, the employee must be informed of their right of appeal and where to send the appeal.

22. Appeal

An employee has the right to appeal against the decision made at the disciplinary hearing, if that decision is to issue the employee with any sanction other than a verbal warning. If an employee wishes to appeal against the decision, they must do so in writing, stating the grounds for their appeal, within five days of receiving the written outcome.

An employee may appeal on the following grounds:

- the sanction given was too harsh given the circumstances
- the procedure was not fairly or correctly applied
- new information has come to light that would directly affect the decision made at the hearing.

The appeal should be sent to the Clerk to Trustees, cc to the HR Director for all Trust employees. The Clerk to Trustees will then arrange for an appeal to take place. An Appeal Committee will be convened and will hear the appeal.

The appeal should be heard without unreasonable delay. A minimum of five days' notice will be given to allow for preparation.

The outcome of an appeal hearing may be to:

- adjourn and refer the matter back to the Responsible Officer if significant new information/evidence is provided, which was not available previously, and may change the original decision
- conclude a procedural irregularity occurred and determine whether this had an impact on the decision-making process and outcome. If so, determine an appropriate sanction and make a recommendation to rectify the situation
- uphold the appeal and determine an alternative sanction/appropriate course of action
- reject the appeal and confirm that the original decision stands.

The decision will be given verbally to all parties at the end of the appeal hearing unless valid reasons exist not to do so. The decision will be confirmed in writing to the employee within five days. An appeal is not a re-hearing of all of the facts but to determine if the original decision was reasonable given the circumstances. The process ends with the decision of the Appeal Committee.

Additional Information

23. HR Advice and Support

The Director of HR or delegate will provide advice and support to the Responsible Officer and any other manager/Governor/Trustee involved in the application of this policy at any stage. The Director of HR or delegate will be present to give advice at any hearing.

24. Reporting Obligations

24.1 Professional Bodies

Where there are cases which could potentially call into question an employee's professional registration, Westcountry Schools Trust will ensure that it follows the appropriate procedure for reporting concerns to the relevant Registered Body.

In addition, employees are responsible for ensuring that they adhere to the individual reporting requirements of their professional body, where they are subject to formal disciplinary procedures.

Cases of unacceptable professional conduct by a teacher should be reported to the Teaching Regulation Agency. 'Unacceptable professional conduct' is defined as 'conduct which falls short of the standard expected of a registered teacher...and is behaviour which involves a breach of the standards of propriety expected of the profession.'

24.2 Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

The primary role of the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) is to help employers make safer recruitment decisions and prevent unsuitable people from working with vulnerable groups, including children.

The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (SVGA) 2006 places a duty on employers of people working with children or vulnerable adults to make a referral to the DBS where an employer has dismissed or removed a person from working with children or vulnerable adults (or would or may have if the person had not left or resigned etc.) because the person has:

- been cautioned or convicted for a relevant offence; or
- engaged in relevant conduct in relation to children and/or vulnerable adults, i.e. an action or inaction (neglect) that has harmed a child or vulnerable adult or put them at risk of harm; or

- satisfied the Harm Test in relation to children and/or vulnerable adults i.e. there has been no relevant conduct (i.e. no action or inaction) but a risk of harm to a child or vulnerable adult still exists.

The referral will be made as soon as possible after an employee has been dismissed or removed from working with children or vulnerable adults (or would have been if they had not resigned).

25. Management Responsibilities

Managers are required to ensure that each employee is aware of this policy and understands both the professional conduct that is required of them and the consequences of not meeting the required standards of behaviour. Action should be taken consistently to identify concerns and reinforce standards of behaviour before it becomes necessary to take formal action. Managers are required to manage the process effectively, fairly and reasonably if it is necessary to use this policy.

26. Employee Responsibilities

Employees are required to conduct themselves appropriately and to observe the rules, regulations and instructions adopted by their employer and carry out their role consistently with any standards set by their appropriate professional body. Employees have a responsibility, where necessary, to take any steps required to address their behaviour.

27. Professional Standards

In this policy where there is reference to "relevant professional standards" this refers to any standards applicable to the post(s) and the career stage of the post holder (e.g. the Teachers Standards 2012 are applicable to all teachers including the Headteacher).

28. Formal Disciplinary Action against Trade Union/Professional Association Representatives

Although the usual standards of conduct expected must apply to trade union/professional association representatives, no formal action within this policy will be taken against an employee who is an accredited representative, nor will suspension normally be applied, until the circumstances of the case have been discussed with a paid official nominated for such purposes by the trade union/professional association concerned.

29. Raising a Grievance during the Application of this Policy

If an employee is currently being managed under this policy and has a complaint related to either the person applying it and/or its application, the employee will raise a complaint under this policy which will be investigated. It may be necessary to suspend the application of the policy while the complaint is being looked into. Any delay to the application of this policy to deal with an employee's complaint should not exceed 10 days.

If an employee raises an unrelated complaint, then the employee should use the Grievance Policy. As the matter is unrelated, there will be no need to put any process currently being applied on hold as the complaint can be dealt with in parallel.

30. Confidentiality

Any parties affected by or involved in the application of this policy will be expected to maintain an appropriate level of confidentiality. Breaches of confidentiality will be taken seriously, especially if they hinder the application of the policy. Failure to maintain confidentiality may result in action being taken under this policy.

Disclosure of information may also be a breach under the Data Protection Act (2018) and may lead to action being taken under the provisions of that Act, in addition to action being taken under this policy.

31. Recording of Information

A written record must be made of all interviews and meetings held during the application of this policy. Those involved in each meeting will be provided with a copy of any records made.

The investigator(s) will ensure there is a full and comprehensive file of the process which should include all statements, records and evidence. At the end of the process the file should be passed to the Human Resources Department who will ensure that it is stored confidentially, in accordance with the Data Protection Act (2018).

32. Support for Employees

Employees are encouraged to seek support from their trade union/professional association in the first instance.

Procedural guidance relating to this policy is available from the Human Resources Department. Where a referral to Occupational Health or the counselling service is necessary, this should be made by the employee's line manager.

33. Consultation

This policy is provided following consultation with trade unions/professional associations and will apply to all employees.

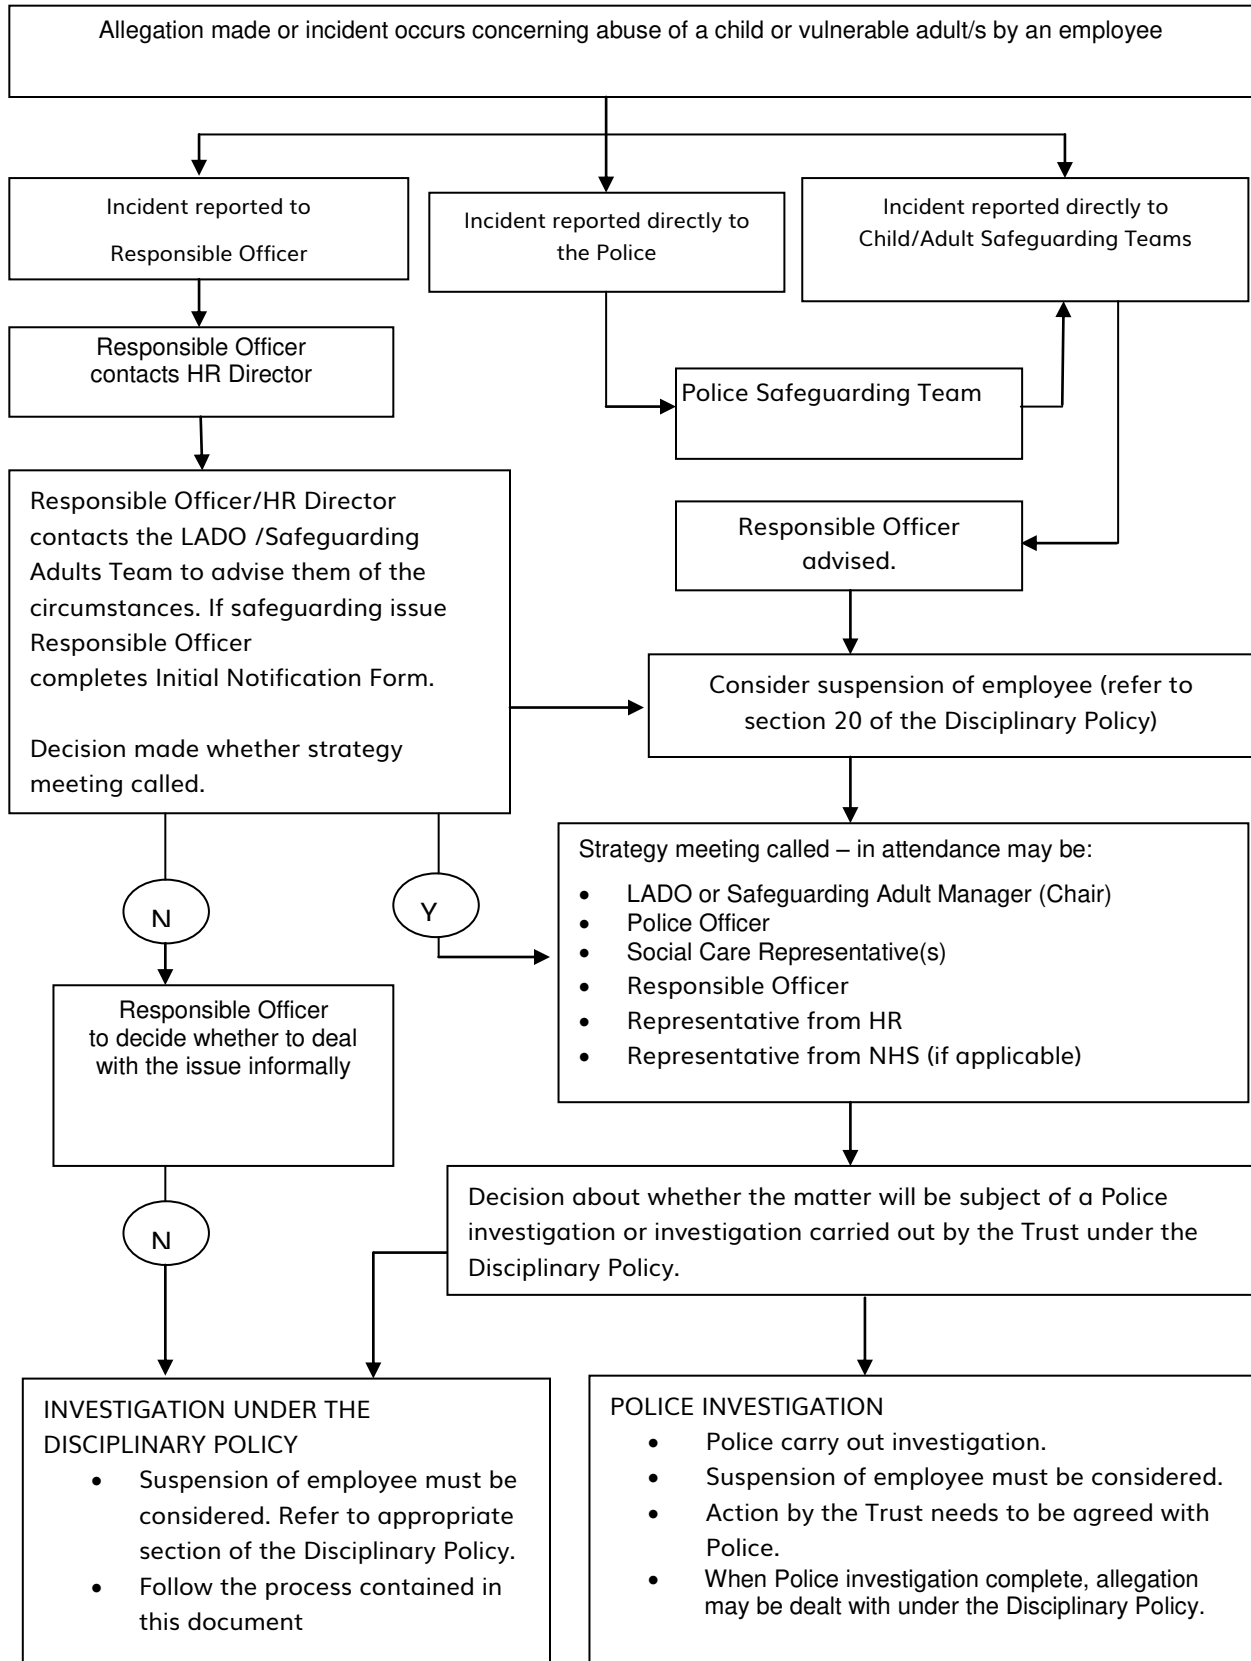

Westcountry Schools Trust (WeST)

This policy supersedes all previous disciplinary policies including any previous conduct policies for schools.

34. Issuing/Retracting Notice of Dismissal

Where an appeal against dismissal is upheld, the notice issued to the employee will be retracted and the employee will be reinstated.

APPENDIX 1 - ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO CHILDREN OR VULNERABLE ADULTS

APPENDIX 2 - EXAMPLES OF WHAT MIGHT CONSTITUTE MISCONDUCT OR GROSS MISCONDUCT

Misconduct

The following list is not exhaustive but gives examples of behaviour that may be dealt with under this policy. It should be noted that depending on the seriousness of the circumstances, any of these actions may be treated as gross misconduct:

- refusal to comply with reasonable and lawful instructions
- timekeeping, including failure to remain at work during contracted hours and being absent without permission
- negligent actions or behaviour
- failure to disclose relationships which may compromise the integrity of the school/Trust
- failure to disclose a personal relationship with a colleague/service user which impacts on professional duties
- inappropriate use of work equipment/property
- breach of confidentiality
- failure to comply with Health and Safety requirements
- actions that may bring the school or MAT into disrepute
- undertaking unnecessary personal activities during working hours
- failure to report any concerns regarding the health, safety and welfare of children / student / vulnerable adults
- misuse of social media.

Gross Misconduct

The following list is not exhaustive but gives examples of behaviour that could be regarded as gross misconduct:

- any of the listed items from the above 'misconduct' list
- physical, sexual, emotional, financial or verbal abuse of children, vulnerable adults, colleagues, parents, customers or volunteers
- a criminal offence applicable to the work performed
- inappropriate conduct and/or contact with a child and/or pupil aged 17 years or under
- inappropriate contact with a child/vulnerable adult, either physical or non-physical e.g. via a social network
