

Plan, organise, and conduct long distance travel, tours, and expeditions for individuals and groups.

Requirements

- Level 3 Diploma in Travel and Tourism.
- 4 or 5 GCSEs at grades 9 to 4 (A* to C) for a level 3 course

Alternatively, you could do a travel consultant advanced apprenticeship.

You'll usually need:

- 5 GCSEs at grades 9 to 4 (A* to C), usually including English and maths, for an advanced apprenticeship

➤ Why do you think it's important to be able to speak different languages in this type of job?

Watch the clip
Working as a Tour Guide around the World - Greg Snell

Day-to-day tasks

- Provide tourists with assistance in obtaining permits and documents such as visas, passports, and health certificates, and in converting currency.
- Pilot airplanes or drive land and water vehicles to transport tourists to activity or tour sites.
- Lead individuals or groups to tour site locations and describe points of interest.
- Pay bills and record checks issued.
- Set up camps, and prepare meals for tour group members.
- Arrange for tour or expedition details such as accommodations, transportation, equipment, and the availability of medical personnel.
- Resolve any problems with itineraries, service, or accommodations.
- Instruct novices in climbing techniques, mountaineering, and wilderness survival, and demonstrate use of hunting, fishing, and climbing equipment.
- Sell travel packages.