Purpose of this policy

This policy outlines the non-acceptance of private candidates for examinations within Plymstock School in accordance with JCQ regulations. This policy applies to all examinations conducted at Plymstock School, including but not limited to GCSEs, A-Levels, and other qualifications governed by JCQ regulations.

Policy Statement

Plymstock School does not accept private candidates for examinations. This policy is in line with the regulations established by the Joint Council for Qualifications and is intended to ensure the integrity and security of the examination process.

Responsibilities

The Examinations Manager at Plymstock School is responsible for ensuring that this policy is communicated to all relevant parties, including staff, students, and parents / carers.

Review and Updates

This policy will be reviewed and updated as necessary to align with the latest JCQ regulations and best practices in examination administration. Any changes to this policy will be communicated to all relevant parties.
